

Listening Within And Thinking For Yourself

1/4/02 SOLTEC

Good evening, my friend. It is I, Ceres Anthonious "Toniose" Soltec, come in the One Light of Creator Source. Be at peace.

For those of you who are new to this sort of information—welcome! There are many aspects of life and existence that lie beyond the physical senses and yet are very real. Almost every one of you have had "psychic" experiences of intuition, premonition, beyond-chance happenings, and such that have left you pondering the Unseen Forces that seem to be guiding you and looking out for your general wellbeing.

There are ones among you who have learned to listen within and interpret the signals imprinted upon their minds, and thus bring forth communications from the non-seen realms such as this very writing. Yes, there are two general types of entities who will communicate in this type of manner. There are those who work diligently toward helping others to progress along their spiritual journey, and there are those who wish to use and manipulate you ones in the physical in an effort to enslave and entrap you in an effort to be worshiped as a god.

How can you tell which is which and who is who? You must discern for yourself the answer, but I will tell you that the Dark element does not like to be confronted through questioning, nor do they like to be exposed to the high-frequency Light emanations of those of us from the Lighted Realms of Creation.

The Lighted entity working towards helping others to grow in awareness of self NEVER minds being questioned as to WHO they are and what their intent is. These Lighted ones will never dodge the question and will NOT answer you in riddles, sarcasm, or in a jesting manner, for the questions are valid, and often the one questioning needs the reassurance that they are not being manipulated.

The Dark entities will do their best to dissuade you from pursuing such a line of questioning, and they are MASTER manipulators who will intimidate you with an authoritative voice of certainty so that you will think it somehow disrespectful to question them.

QUESTION EVERYTHING YOU HEAR OR READ!

The physical experience is for YOUR growth. If you ever think that you have found absolute Truth in any one thing, such as even this sort of message or the publication it arrives in, then you are quite MISTAKEN in your perception. Each one receiving this message will interpret it differently, in some way. Some will quickly denounce it and say it is the work of the devil, and will want to run away. Others may embrace it in some sort of religious manner, and want to accept every word without question. Both extreme perceptions cannot be correct. And as most of you have learned from experiences in other areas of your life—the truth usually exists somewhere between such extremes.

The intent of this message is to get you to THINK FOR YOURSELF, and to reason through the various possibilities that are not presented in such as your various schools and institutions of "higher" learning. Most of your schools are designed to mentally corral you ones into a very specific mindset which dictates and reinforces the need for material security. Those who question the instructors and challenge the "status quo" are often met with the harsh repercussions of ridicule and humiliation.

Most ones believe in God, Angels, Spirit Guides, and their negative counterparts. And yet, for the most part on your world, the majority have been trained to believe that God was very busy thousands of years ago giving messages that have been compiled into books such as the Bible, the Koran, sacred scrolls, and such, and religions have been built up around these ancient teachings. In almost every instance, the ones using these words to form religious groups made it very clear that they were ABSOLUTE teachings, and that there would NEVER be a need to add or subtract from them.

The reality of physical existence has ALWAYS been that each experiencing individual has a DIRECT INNER CONNECTION to Creator Source—THE One who created YOU (the soul-you). It is the responsibility of you each, as individuals, to find your own truth and your own reality concerning what you choose to believe.

Often there are simple ways to discern whether a new concept is leading to a greater understanding. The biggest clue will be if it answers more questions than it poses. If yes, then it is most likely the information is leading in a direction that will build to a greater understanding.

If, on the other hand, your questions are answered with vagueness or limitations—such as "You are mere mortals and therefore cannot possibly comprehend the advanced thinking of Creator God; therefore the question is unanswerable" or "Just have faith!" then you can be sure that the answer to your question is NOT in that direction.

Please note that if you can ask a question, then you are capable of receiving the answer. Just keep looking and YOU WILL FIND THE ANSWER!

For those of you who may be wondering why I have chosen to address this subject at this time, it is because there are many new readers of these messages who seek this sort of clarification. Likewise there are many of you longtime readers who sometimes need the reminder that you cannot just wait around for someone else to discern your spiritual guidance for you.

This sort of message is intended to serve as confirmation to you ones, so that as you endeavor to monitor your own internal intuitions, gut feelings, and such, you will have a confirmation that you are, indeed, not only capable of conscious interaction with the non-physical entities and nonphysical world, but that through application of concept you validate the REALITY for yourself.

Most of you are the "prove it to me" sort who require personal verification. How do I prove to you that YOU have the internal ability to go within and have a TWO-WAY communication with Creator Source? I obviously cannot, but YOU can! And unless YOU make an honest, heartfelt effort to do so, the proof you desire will elude you.

Let me be very clear about one thing: The negative (or Dark) energies are usually the ones who, given the chance, will be quick to come forth and try to gain your confidence. Your first line of "defense" is to simply call upon Creator God (the One who created you) and ask for His protection and guidance, and to surround you with His Love (Light). By taking this simple precaution, coupled with your honest heart's intent to connect, you will have summoned very high-frequency entities (Angels) to your assistance who will naturally repel any pesky low-frequency energies.

In order to discern the intent of the entity, question them until you have personal satisfaction. Demand identification and intent!

Also—and this is very important—if you yourself are upset, angry, or even slightly annoyed, then you will GREATLY amplify the possibility and probability that you will encounter an entity of similar frequency. Like attracts like, and it is always best to learn to feel at peace and have a sense of distance from any negative emotions.

Wait until you are well rested and have a sense of, at the very least, contentment within, and then say a prayer asking for the Love and Light of Creator God to surround you. (Light here may be thought of, simply, as a symbol for Goodness—that which dissolves Darkness and repels Evil.) Now ask your question. Be still and monitor VERY CLOSELY the thoughts that come into your mind.

Often the scribe writing these messages will try to guess what will be written about when the urge to sit for a message comes. Usually this one will experience a blankness, often described as “writer’s block”. However, when this one has cleared the mind and space, and is actually ready to proceed, the words begin to flow—slowly at first, but then rather non-stop, until the message cycle has completed.

Often this is the very clue that the words are a result of an internal imprint upon the mind. Another clue sometimes only becomes evident upon the later reading and consideration of what you have written—when you say to yourself, perhaps in amazement, “Where did THAT come from?!” This happens especially when the message you receive contains helpful thoughts very different from what YOU “thought” would be the answer. Eventually you will come into a balance with the process and realize there is no magic nor mysticism associated with this sort of communication.

ALL of the valid messages in the so-called holy books were written in the same manner. And yet, if God chooses to send the messages again, in the current modern dialect, then it is somehow “evil” and of the devil?

Perhaps the inner fear that some ones feel that causes them to want to instantly condemn such communications and, in effect, run and hide, is the fear that they may have been wrong about the limitations they have placed upon God (and themselves) by holding the belief that one physical work, such as the Bible, is an absolute and perfect and complete depiction of God’s work. If this were true, there would never be various interpretations and versions, nor would there be fighting over whose interpretation or version is correct. Therefore, the work cannot be an absolute.

Don’t get this concept wrong. This writing is in no way an absolute either. It is intended to help you ones gain insight into the workings of the non-physical aspects of existence. The concepts are accurate as presented. However, each of you will interpret the words differently, just as happens with works such as the Bible or the Koran. You each are entitled to your own opinions and choices.

If this message offends you, then at least you have tried to understand the message offered—even if it does make you a bit uncomfortable. I assure you that I am first and foremost a Teacher, though my chosen specialty concerns what you ones would recognize as geophysics.

Sometimes lessons of such a general philosophical nature as is this one are best approached from various different angles so as to assemble a more complete picture. Remember the parable of the three blind men standing in various locations around the elephant, trying to discern what exactly they were encountering. One may hold the elephant’s trunk; another the tail; and the other an ear. With only that data, they are likely to come to different conclusions, leading to many arguments about their supposedly shared “reality” about what is an elephant. Given enough time and perseverance, however, they would each come to a very similar concept of the TRUE nature of the item they were examining, once they had each collected enough data.

Likewise, with diligence you too will head in a general direction of greater and greater understanding. Be persistent and be patient with yourselves. Often you must look at concepts you were told were wrong and bad or even “of the devil”, and discern FOR YOURSELF the accuracy of what you have been taught.

Remember how, at one time, according to the teachings of “The Church”, the world was flat, and the Sun, Moon and stars were created and destroyed every day, and your little planet was the center of the universe. Just as those concepts are laughed at now, so too will some of the concepts and beliefs you ones now commonly hold as truth be laughed at in the future. (Clue: “Nothing can travel faster than the speed of light, and therefore it would be impossible for extraterrestrials to travel to Earth.”)

With the start of this new year (by your calendar markings), may you each find a renewed curiosity about the nature of your soul and the desire to follow same. In looking at old beliefs and ideologies, you may see that you too have just accepted these without question because it was the way you were brought up. In short, it is part of your mental programming to just accept these ideas without question, even if logical reasoning causes confusion.

Take the story of Lucifer for example: Just how could one of Creator God’s very own creations ever become more powerful than the One who could uncreate him in a mere twinkling of an eye!?! Do you honestly believe Creator God made a mistake when creating ones such as Lucifer? Was he an accident or is he fulfilling his purpose as God intended him to? Either God makes mistakes or Lucifer is simply fulfilling the role God intended. It cannot be both ways.

Dear ones, Creator God makes NO MISTAKES!

I am Ceres Anthonious “Toniose” Soltec, come from the Lighted Higher Realms as a Messenger, Wayshower, and Teacher at this time to offer assistance when and where allowed. I come in the Radiant Light and Love of Creator Source—so that you ones may have additional resources with which to face the challenges that you now face.

Blessings and Peace to each and every one of you. Salu. △
